

As a way of welcoming the freshmen to CS and campus life, C4DLab will be running a series of Python Bootcamps for SCI Freshmen students beginning next week (week of 17th June). The series has been dubbed “A Byte of Python”.

There will be one 2-hrs session every week, on Fridays 2.00 PM (to be agreed among the freshmen)

Prerequisite: come as fresh as you are  You don't need to know much.
